

NORWELL Herring Brook Hill

Six village shops and the Alewife Tavern -

A world away from the city and the malls - uncommon quality and service in Harlen Drum's marketplace - Discover for yourself --- an expert repairman, diamond-setter, and designer of custom-made gold jewelry. He's Joseph Cerra, and he does it all in-house, as well as watchmaking and engraving, in a well-equipped shop. A wide selection of watches and jewelry, including antique jewelry and pocket watches. Buyers of old gold...appraisers. Open Friday evenings. Phone: 659-7617. Discover the...

Village Jeweler

NEW! Seating inside and on the patio for lunch and supper. Overstuffed sandwiches, salads, quiche lorraine, Bassett's ice cream. To take home: deli cold cuts, prime steaks, cheeses, gourmet groceries, exotic coffee beans. Expert catering services available. Open 'til 8 every night. Phone: 659-4076. Discover

the Deli Ice Cream & Sandwich Shop

copper and brass, sailing sweaters of oiled English wool, and Irish and Scandinavian knits; imported and domestic tables, hutches and settles; ship's wheels, lanterns, and other marine artifacts with a history. Out of the ordinary ideas for decorating and giving, from $3 to $3000, gathered by Harlen Drum and Deborah Murphy. Open Wed, Thurs and Fri evenings. Phone: 659-4056. Discover

Knits & Nauticals

specialists who understand the care of hair and skin. Jack and Joanne Johnston have put together a talented team of nine specialists to serve the whole family. Complete services include facials, make-up, nail sculpture, feet manicures, waxing, corrective hair coloring, precision hair cutting, and custom perms. Redken products, too. Open Wednesday and Thursday (men's night) evenings. Phone: 659-2069. Discover the original designs and fresh ideas in women's wear with such admired labels as Emily, Tanner, Robert Scott and Villager - classic clothing, dresses and ensembles - selected for you by Lucille Naymie and Jan McTaggart. Alterations. Open Friday evenings. Phone: 659-4700. Discover....

Hair Loft

Pamela's Place

music boxes and flower arrangements, hand-made dolls for collectors, brass and pewter and New England Clocks. Baskets and pottery and a complete line of Ambassador greeting cards. Jean and Don Foss have assembled a fascinating collection of gifts from everywhere in their sunny shop. Open Wed, Thurs, Fri eves and Sunday at 1. Phone: 659-4778. Discover...

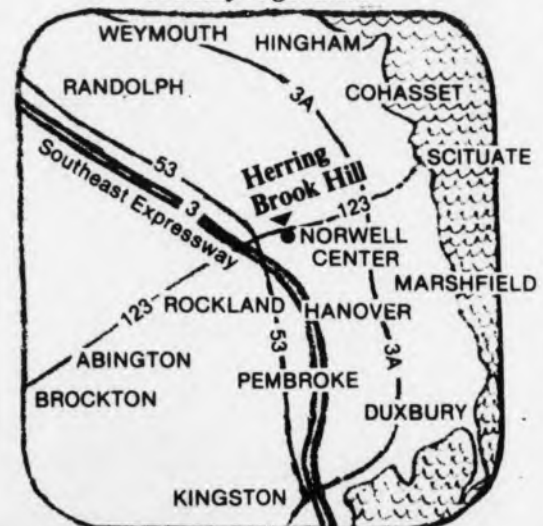

Village Gifts

white table cloth dining, an oyster bar, and a full-fledged London pub in Norwell Center! It's Bob Drum's Alewife Tavern, where you can watch chef Roland Parent prepare the specialties of the house - roasts, chops, and sautes in the dining room, hearty sandwiches and chowders in the pub. Luncheon and dinner specials daily. Every day favorites: finnan haddie and the hot lobster sandwich. All major credit cards honored. Open seven days a week. Now you can call ahead to make your reservations at 659-4922. Discover the

ALEWIFE TAVERN

It's easy to get there herring brook hill in Norwell Center on Route 123 between Routes 3A and 3 (take the Rte 123 exit), and next door to Hitchcock Chair

A gathering place for good food, good talk, and uncommon shopping and service